EY2010 Policy Areas and A World In Waiting Themes

EY2010 UK themes	Joseph Rowntree Foundation 'challenges for government'	Bristol 20:20 Outcomes	Bristol 2020 Strategy	A World In Waiting 'themed' discussions
Child Poverty	Poverty amongst children in workless households Educational attainment the lowest attaining school-children	Raising the aspirations and achievements of our children, young people and families	Keep our children and young people safe Tackle the causes and effects of child poverty Ensure that all our children and young people achieve to their full potential Improve our shared understanding and planning for the needs of our children and young people	Provide support/ information for under privileged families and children 0-5 to enable creative development (3/a) • Learning from different cultures • Hard to reach groups How to improve long term outcomes for children in care (32/b)
Working Age Poverty & Social. Exclusion	In-work poverty Progression in work Young adults without minimum qualifications Young adult unemployment Underemployment	Making our prosperity sustainable	Promote Bristol's profile as a culturally vibrant and innovative city and Green Capital to underpin sustainable inward investment. In particular, take a lead in tackling climate change and move towards a low carbon economy through delivering the Climate Change and Energy Security Policy. Facilitate the supply of a readily available workforce with the skills that business need Deliver sustainable economic recovery by providing targeted support to the 5 key and emerging sectors: creative & media; advanced engineering, aerospace and defence; microelectronics and silicon design; environmental technologies/ marine renewable industries; tourism. Sustain the conditions for innovation and the development of new technologies, products and services; encourage high levels of business start up and growth of small businesses Secure the improved transport, environmental and broadband infrastructure that our businesses and communities need; provide access to a range of employment land and premises (in Bristol, through the implementation of Bristol's Core Strategy)	What is poverty? (3/b) How to tackle long-term unemployment (4/a) How can we reduce income inequality in Bristol? (22/c) Network of social entrepreneurs for Bristol (1/c)
Severe Multiple Deprivation	Deep poverty Health inequalities	Reduce health and wealth inequalities	Support and facilitate employment opportunities; target activity and skills development to young people, long term workless, and areas of deprivation Deliver actions that promote and sustain 'health and well being for life'; prioritise reduction in smoking, teenage pregnancy, harm caused by drugs and alcohol; promote increasing levels of exercise, active travel and access to healthy sustainable food Promote independence, dignity and quality of life of people living with disability and longterm illness. Help people to be more active and live longer in their homes. In local communities, strengthen the support to informal carers and neighbourhood groups to give sustainable care and assistance to people with care needs	How to break down barriers between communities (27/a) • Identity/ Divisions/ Isolation/ • Housing • Community spirit Free complimentary medicine on the NHS (25/a)

	Lack of access to essential services	A city of strong and safe communities	Empower and sustain resilient, cohesive communities that influence local decisions and shape public services. Strengthen volunteering and the voluntary and community sector. Promote equalities and reduce the gap created by historic inequality. Address the potential risks of the cumulative impact of the current economic and fiscal decisions affecting some communities and groups disproportionately Reduce crime across the city; tackle the impact of substance misuse; ensure access to drug and alcohol treatment. Priority focus on reduction of reoffending. Develop more sustainable communities through increasing the supply of affordable homes; maximising the number of empty homes brought into use; promoting a high quality built environment, local shops, high quality parks, jobs and regeneration outcomes.	Defending public services (24/a) Giving voice to the socially excluded (19/b) Fear of public services being decimated (24/b) More sites for gypsies and travellers (25/c) Encouraging activism and awareness at the local level: Human Trafficking (36/b)
Older People Poverty & Social Exclusion				Harnessing the experience and resources of old people (15/b)
	Miscellaneous (non-themed) discussions Bristol as the first creative city (1/a) Pedestrian solutions in east Bristol's M32 Motorway (29/a) Consciousness and spirituality (28/a) Measuring success – (quantative v qualitative?) (41/a) Through poetry: the power to imagine a fairer future (2/a) How can we count Bristol's invisible people in the census? (21/a) How to prevent multi-national corporations from making profit in the UK with UK resources and then moving the profit to tax havens to avoid UK tax systems (23/a) What are we going to do about the bankers? (45/a) How to create a people's bank run by the deprived, serving the deprived? (5/c) Do we all need washing machines / cars? (39/c) Why aren't mental health professionals admitted to a psychiatric hospital in training? How to create a fun revolution (27/b)			Miscellaneous discussions Active inclusion in the lower spectrum of society (31/a) • Café Society Better support for Somali women in our communities? (30/a) What would be different if Ubuntu was the basis for policy decisions? (5/b) Lower/ remove tuition fees to help encourage further education in low or no income families or individuals (27/c) Improve relationships between the police and young people? (26/c) Green issues How we can use Bristol's open spaces as walking routes (5/a) Bristol 100% solar by 2020 (22/a) Fairtrade (10/c)